HOLIDAY POTPOURRI AT FMC

This holiday season, Fort Mason Center offers a variety of activities for the whole family. You can find gifts for everyone at exhibits and sales; get your Christmas tree, wreaths, and all your decorations, including a smoke alarm disguised as an ornament; send your kids to a holiday art workshop; browse in the quiet of art galleries; attend theater performances appropriate for all ages to enjoy together; take a class in self-defense to discourage holiday purse-snatchers; and, finally, take one of several kinds of exercise classes to counteract the effects of all those holiday calories.

The location is convenient for most, accessible via MUNI, with free parking. Here are a few highlights, but be sure to check through our day-by-day listings, and the columns giving details on Classes, Workshops, and Galleries, to find just the right thing for you, your family and friends.

THE GUARDSMEN CHRISTMAS TREE SALE

The largest Christmas tree lot in Northern California opens in Fort Mason Center's Pier 3 the day after Thanksgiving. The Guardsmen's annual sale features a large stock of very tall trees, and an abundance of varieties, including Douglas fir, sheared Douglas fir (trimmed to a perfect triangle), Scotch pine, Noble fir, Silvertip fir, and Blue spruce. With the added convenience of being an enclosed lot for all-weather shopping, you can browse through 35,000 square feet of trees, ranging in size from 2 to 16 feet, and in price from $13 to $207, from November 29 through December 23.

Holiday accessories available include wreaths from 18" to 36" in diameter, door charms, garlands, Christmas doormats, lights, ornaments and stands. Of special interest this year is a three-inch bronze tree ornament that is actually a battery-operated smoke alarm. Perforations in the ornament allow smoke to enter, should your tree catch fire, and quickly alert you to the danger.

On the weekends, you'll be serenaded by a brass band as you make your selections. On Saturday, December 7, KSFO Radio broadcasts live all day from the lot. Once you've picked the perfect tree, you can have it treated with fire retardant, flocked, mounted on a stand—and even tied on top of your car for you, for a safe and secure journey home.

If you would like a tree for your store or office, you can call 781-6785 to order the size and type you want, and it will be delivered to you. Advance sales to businesses account for about half of the 10,000 trees sold by The Guardsmen each year.

Last year, 5,700 Bay Area boys and girls were sent to summer camps selected by The Guardsmen, supported by sales from the Christmas tree lot. Terminally ill children were included in the program for the first time in 1984. Camps chosen include Boys' Club camps and the Christian Youth Organization's Camp Armstrong near Sebastopol.

The sale is open from 9am to 9pm Monday through Friday and 8:30am to 9pm Saturday and Sunday.

"TALE OF THE TOY SOLDIER"

The Young Performers Theatre will present "Tale of the Toy Soldier," a heartwarming story of love between a toy clown and ballerina, a musical for kids from 1 to 92.

The story begins with a gathering of toys, brought together for the annual Toymasters' Contest for best toy of the year. While awaiting the decision of the judges, the clown falls in love with the ballerina, but she is stolen by the Greedy Toysnatcher, who sings "It's Fun to be Mean." Through a series of adventures, the clown rescues the ballerina—aided by Clank, the Greedy Toysnatcher's sidekick, who really has a heart of gold—and the two live happily ever after.

Other lifesize toys in colorful traditional costumes include the Bride Doll, Raggedy Ann and Andy, and the Toy Soldier, the narrator of the story. For the audience, it will be almost as if they are a part of the action, right in the middle of Santa's workshop.

This original Christmas story was the winner of YPT's 1985 nationwide playwrighting contest, won by Anthony Lazzarini of San Rafael. YPT uses both children and professional adult actors in the performance of pieces for the whole family. The 1986 season is currently being planned.

"Tale of the Toy Soldier" will be presented one evening, Friday, December 6th, at 7:30pm; and Saturdays and Sundays, 11am and 1pm, December 7th through 22nd, in Building C, Room 300. For information about YPT or the performances, call 346-5550.

"THE SNOW QUEEN"

The Academy of Media & Theatre Arts (AMATA) will present Hans Christian Andersen's wonderful holiday tale, "The Snow Queen," in a musical adaptation for the whole family. The story revolves around the disappearance of a twelve-year-old boy named Kay, who has had a spell cast over him by hobgoblins, mischievous creatures of black magic. This allows the evil Snow Queen to turn his heart to ice and lure him to her palace near the North Pole. Kay's closest friend, Gerda, and her grandmother worry about his absence, so Gerda sets out to find him.

It is a quest filled with adventure. On the way, Gerda encounters and is helped by an old woman in a garden of talking flowers, two very unusual crows, a prince and princess, a band of swashbuckling robbers, a reindeer, and a Finnish woman with magical powers. Gerda's innocence and love provide her strength, and enable her to rescue Kay from the Snow Queen. The grandmother is played by professional actress Gemma Wheelan, while the remainder of the large cast consists of young people from AMATA. The key role of Gerda is played by Tami Stronach, who appeared as the Empress in Wolfgang Petersen's movie, "The Never-Ending Story."

AMATA teaches media and theater skills to children and young people, ages 6-19. Students can choose from classes in creative dramatics, scene study, radio and video productions. The winter term is now beginning.

"The Snow Queen" will be presented from December 12th through 22nd, Thursdays and Fridays, 4pm; Saturdays, 1pm and 4pm; Sundays, 11am; and one evening performance, Monday, December 16th, at 7:30pm. For information about the play or AMATA classes, call 776-4720.

FOLK ART INTERNATIONAL

The Folk Art International Christmas Exhibition and Sale returns to Fort Mason Center this year from November 23 through December 24. An annual event eagerly awaited by collectors and gift shoppers alike, this year's show features an extensive collection of fine Japanese folk art gathered from rural artisans and craft centers, plus treasures discovered along China's ancient silk route, Khmer sculptures from the 9th century, and stone carvings from India's Gandhara period.

Visitors will also find a wealth of contemporary crafts from around the world, including a menagerie of whimsical wooden animals from Mexico, Africa, and the Orient; Portuguese country baskets; an opulent selection of pillows crafted from hand-knotted rugs, embroideries, and fine textiles; Tuareg amulets from Timbuctu, cobalt enamel pendants from Afghanistan, African brass bracelets, and other exquisite ethnic adornments; handblown glasses and decanters from Spain; fanciful ceramic village scenes from Ocumicho, Michoacan; containers of all sizes and shapes, from colorful handpainted trunks to tiny buffalo-horn boxes; ceramic musicians from Ayacucho, Peru; miniature Ashanti brass goldweights from Ghana; and sequined Burmese pictorial embroideries.

Kids of all ages can select toys to amuse themselves, including colorful Zulu beaded dolls, handwoven jute reindeer, Chinese handpuppets, and brightly-painted wooden ferris wheels from Mexico; drums, balaphones, shakerees, gongs, and panpipes to give your holidays a musical air; and handmade ornaments from China, India, Mexico, Sri Lanka, and South America, to adorn your tree.

Guests at the exhibit will also have an opportunity to view slides from Folk Art International's school kit on masks, as well as photos giving cultural context to many of the other articles on display.

Located in the Conference Center, Building A, hours are 10am to 8pm Tuesdays through Thursdays and 10am to 6pm Sundays and Mondays. The exhibit will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, November 28. Admission and parking are free.

ART CENTER SHOW/SALE

The Fort Mason Art Center presents its 10th Annual Christmas Show and Sale. All of the classrooms, in Building B, will be arranged as gallery spaces, displaying hundreds of works of art by faculty and students of the Art Center. On exhibit will be ceramics, sculpture, painting, drawing, prints, stained glass, jewelry, photography, and a variety of textile arts—weaving, quilts, stuffed toys, handmade clothes, and soft sculpture. There will also be a selection of art postcards designed by students in the "Business and the Visual Artist" class.

The quality of work at Art Center shows is impressive. In addition, since some of the participants are students showing for the first time, there is the possibility of great bargains for the art collector who can spot a beginner with promise. Buying direct from the artist provides the opportunity to discuss the works with the maker, to pay lower prices than at a gallery, and to know that the money goes directly to the artist.

You may also be inspired to sign up for a class or two yourself. The spring semester begins January 13, and class schedules will be available at the show.

The Christmas Show and Sale will take place on Saturday and Sunday, December 14th and 15th, from 10am to 6pm. Admission is free, and there will be free refreshments in every room. There will also be raffles of selected works donated by the artists. For information about the show, or about classes, call 776-8247.
